Cuicago, March 19 -Referring to the grand jury investigation of "boodling" methods practiced by members of the city council, the Tribune calls attention to the following significant facts which, it says, it is in a position to ly for Their Votes.

Fifty $1,000 bills were drawn from the Illinois Trust and Savings bank by a manufacturing concern a few days after the passage of the compressed air

A man interested in a street railway franchise says he went to a certain alderman to make a legitimate offer of a large sum to the city for a franchise. The alderman said he had talked it over with the boys and that it would cost the company $75,000; but that the money must go "to the aldermen and not to the city."

In the presence of witnesses an alderman demanded $5,000 as the price of getting an ordinance out of a committee's pigeon-hole.

There is said to be from $150,00° to $250,000 in certain hands to be paid certain aldermen provided the mayor signs the Yerkes omnibus ordinance. The sum of $1,750, offered as a bribe and accepted on the advice of counsel. has been turned over to a newspaper by Alderman Roth to be used as evi-

Paid Out Over 8500,000. "It costs a good deal of money some times to buy the city council," said an attorney who is closely connected with the state's attorney. "The Northern | $40,000,000 and using his influence to Pacific had all the worst of it in the last three big deals the aldermen have made. The figures for those three sales of city franchises are just these: Northern Pacific Economic Gas Compressed Air

"Those are the amounts the members of the council received in those three deals, and some of them will wish soon they had never seen a cent

A lawyer of this city when in his cups confided to an acquaintance that he had paid eleven $1,000 bills to as many aldermen in connection with the Northern Pacific ordinance.

An alderman said in committee meeting that an offer of $50,000 "to the city" for a franchise was "perpetrating blackmail upon the aldermen." The Grand Jury at Work.

When the grand jury reassembled at a. m. it decided to enter upon an investigation of the methods whereby the economic gas ordinance was passed by the city council. A score of witnesses had been summoned and were in waiting to be ex-Among them were the officers of the company and several aldermen. City Clerk Van Cleve was first examined and produced the records of the council showing the names of the aldermen that voted for the ordinance under investigation and the others under suspicion. Alderman Stanley Kunz was then called in and examined at length. Report has it that three members of the council will be arrested very soon. Those mentioned in this connection are Alderman John Powers, of the Nineteenth ward, John A. Cooke, of the Seventh, and "Billy" O'Brien, of the Sixth. State's Attorney Longenecker will neither affirm or deny the report. DEATH OF A JURIST.
